SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Giselle joined Cusp in 2016 as a Landscape Technician and is currently studying her Masters of Architecture at the Queensland University of Technology (QUT) in Brisbane.

Giselle has experience working on a variety of projects at different stages from concept design through to documentation. She has worked on Compliance Assessment for Queens Wharf Brisbane, compiling design information into cohesive and thorough reports for approval by EDQ. She has comprehensive experience completing packages for Development Approval for a variety of projects types, including multi-residential, retirement villages and water treatment parks. Giselle enjoys hand drawing and has incorporated this passion into several projects for schematic sketches as well as detailed design.

Giselle has a strong interest in connecting community to the processes of Architecture and Landscape Architecture and has engaged with numerous community groups to connect people to shaping the spaces around them. Throughout her studies she has also engaged in several committees and organisations, including being the Australian Institute of Architects (AIA) SONA representative for QUT in 2014.
