SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Hannah joined the CUSP team in March 2021 after graduating with a Bachelor of Design (Landscape Architecture) (Honours IIA) in 2019. Hannah was a nominee for the Karl Langer Award of her graduating year and during Hannah's academic studies her design philosophy was inspired and developed by a keen interest in abstract art & photography, culture, ecological conservation and the unique qualities of place.

In her professional practice, Hannah aspires to design spaces and curate experiences within the landscape that inspire unique connections between people and place through meaningful, thoughtful and imaginative design that benefits both community and environment whilst endeavouring to make an enduring and positive change in the world.
