EDUCATION

Bachelor of Design, Landscape
Architecture – QUT
Diploma of Design - USC

Jeremy has recently joined CUSP as a landscape technician after completing his landscape architecture degree at QUT. Whilst at university Jeremy was nominated for the “Excellence in Landscape Architecture” award.

Jeremy has a passion for designing for a more conservative and sustainable future. Furthermore, designing for a wider community and engaging a variety of stakeholders and communities to achieve more inclusive and respectful design outcomes are a predominant attribute to Jeremy’s design approach.

With the need for a greener and more environmentally conscious future, Jeremy is inspired by the opportunity to design landscape spaces which create a more sustainable and ecologically rich environment.
