SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Kellie joined CUSP in 2015 during her 3rd year of her Landscape Architecture Degree at QUT; she graduated with 2nd class Honours and a nomination for the Karl Langer Award. Since joining CUSP, Kellie has designed and managed projects ranging from broadscale residential to landscape rehabilitation and sub-tropical 'green architecture'. Kellie aims to gain practise in landscape architecture for tourism and cultural design, as well as hone her skills in designing for user experience. Her passion for landscape architecture comes with her interest in visual art and talent for creating a story in the landscape.
