SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Originally from the UK, Alex joined CUSP in 2024. He studied Landscape Architecture at Edinburgh University and has a background in both landscape design and landscape planning, bringing a holistic approach to the profession.

Alex has worked on a wide range of projects at various scales, contributing to an international portfolio that includes projects in the UK, Republic of Ireland, Iceland, New Zealand, and Australia. His experience in landscape design spans from developing initial conceptual proposals to detailed design, implementation, and on-site construction observation.

In addition to design, Alex has significant experience in landscape planning, including conducting landscape assessments for large-scale renewable energy projects and major transport infrastructure.

Passionate about the natural environment and eager to expand his knowledge and skills, Alex finds great fulfilment in Landscape Architecture. The profession offers endless opportunities to positively impact people, places, and the planet; something he values deeply.
